COLUMBIA, O.

At the M. E. Church in Linwood there will be a meeting this evening, and several lectures will be delivered in the interest of the Sunday-schools and Sunday-school teachers.

The meeting at the Reading rooms last evening for the purpose of considering the best course to be taken in regard to organizing the Young Folks Temperance Club was not as well attended as desired. Rev. D. F. Harris acted as Chairman of the meeting, and the first thing done, in accordance with a motion made by Rev. Stevens, was the passing around of a paper headed by the Murphy pledge, for the signature of each person present, the object being to secure their help and co-operation toward organizing.

Rev. Stevens then made a motion to the effect that a committee of three be appointed to form a constitution and permanent organization. This motion being adopted, Mr. Harris appointed as a committee Mr. Stevens, Mr. O. E. Walker and Mr. Holcomb. Mr. Stevens being unable to serve, stating his reasons, requested Mr. Harris to serve in his stead, which request was granted. The meeting then adjourned until 7:30 o'clock next Monday evening, when the Committee will report.

USEFUL FAMILY RECIPES.

Snow-ball Cake.—Whites of three eggs, one cup white sugar, one-half cup butter, teaspoon soda; stir thick and bake in small tins.—[E. S. G., Middletown, O.]

Jelly Cake.—Three eggs, one cup sugar, one cup flour, one teaspoon cream tartar, one-half teaspoon soda, three tablespoons sweet milk; bake in jelly tins.—[R. S., Cambridge City, Ind.]

Cream Cake.—Three eggs, one cup sugar, one cup flour, two tablespoons butter, one teaspoon tartar, one teaspoon soda; bake in jelly tins. Filling to be put between two cakes; one-half cup sugar, one-half cup sweet cream, one egg, one tablespoon corn starch; season to taste.—[M., Burlington, Iowa.]

Caramels.—Three pounds brown sugar, half pound chocolate (Baker's), half pound butter, two tablespoons molasses, same of vinegar, one cupful cream or milk; add vanilla when off fire; boil twenty-five minutes; beat ten minutes to granulate; if crisp preferred, do not beat.—[W. T., Flint, Michigan.]

Frosting for Cake.—For one large cake use a pound of pulverized white sugar and the whites of two eggs; stir the sugar gradually into the whites, squeeze in the juice of half a lemon; stir well; put on one layer; let stand half an hour, then put on another. This makes a hard frosting.—[R. M. L., Staunton, Va.]

Roast "Spare Ribs"—Rub over with salt, pepper and powdered sage before putting in the oven. The gravy should be made of the drippings as in roast beef—that is, thickened with brown flour. Allow fifteen minutes to every pound of pork for roasting, and serve tart apple sauce with it.—[M. E. W., Charleston, W. Va.]

Delicious Brown Bread—Two coffee-cups of corn meal, one coffee-cup of molasses, one quart of sweet skim milk, one tablespoonful salt, one of saleratus and two eggs; stir with flour or shorts about as stiff as for cake, bake in a pudding dish. This is excellent, and testing it you will pronounce it good.—[M. S. T., Easton, Pa.]

Pickled Chickens.—Boil three chickens until the meat will fall from the bones. Remove the meat as whole as possible and put into a stone jar. Add to a pint of the water in which they were boiled enough vinegar to cover the meat. Season with cloves, allspice, pepper and salt, and pour hot over the chicken.—[E. V., Watertown, N. Y.]

Cookies.—Four eggs, one cup of butter, two cups of sugar, two teaspoons of cream of tartar, and one teaspoon of soda; beat the butter and sugar well together, then add the eggs, well beaten; stir the cream of tartar and soda in the flour, and thicken to roll; bake in a moderate oven. They are very nice. Try them.—[L. G., Westwood, Ohio.]

Sponge Pudding.—Slice sponge cake, put a layer in a pudding dish, sprinkle a few raisins, currants and citron sliced thin, with a very little butter; continue this alternately until the dish is full. Make one quart of boiled custard and pour into the dish; set in an oven and bake fifteen minutes. Eat with rich sauce.—[M. S. G., Alton, Ill.]

Lemon Pie.—One lemon, one cup of sugar, one tablespoon cornstarch, rub smooth with a little water, one-half cup boiling water, one egg; butter the size of a walnut; one crust. Another: One tablespoon cornstarch scalded with a cup of water, pour on to one cup sugar, piece of butter the size of a small egg; cool, and add one egg, juice of one lemon, baked with one crust.—[L. S. W., Logansport, Ind.]

Feels Young Again.—"My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels well again, although over seventy years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family."—A lady, Providence, R. I.

THE COURTS.

A STRIFE FOR THE CHILDREN.

About a year ago a suit for divorce was brought before Judge Longworth by Henry Shockley, of this city, but after the trial the divorce was refused, and the two children, Mamie and Bertie, given to the custody of their mother. The father objected to this, and in a few days had succeeded in conveying the children away. The woman had no money to employ aid in finding them, and it was not until a few weeks ago that the learned of the whereabouts of Mamie, who was in the Carondelet Convent, near St. Louis. She immediately started for St. Louis, and upon showing the order of Judge Longworth had little difficulty in obtaining possession of her child, with whom she immediately returned to this city and stopped with a friend at No. 45 Betts street. The father, who was also at St. Louis, immediately followed his wife and has since been endeavoring to get the child. Yesterday, however, a warrant was sworn out before "Squire Block against the husband on the charge of hiding the boy, who has not yet been found.

Geo. E. Richards, the genial agent for this city of the firm of Watts, Parker & Co., of New York, is the happy father of bouncing twin boys.
